

CIHEAM
BARI

AgriHub: Establishment of a National Agriculture Research and Innovation
Hub

AGRIHUB

Image not found or type unknown

Project Objectives:

The AgriHub project aims to establish an Agriculture Research and Innovation Hub to support innovative agriculture applicative research and implement pilot projects. Its main aim is to study and develop guidance documents and to setup demonstration sites for farmers on integrated production, using precision agriculture and the production of good quality fodder for livestock. The ultimate objective is to create the required framework and a platform to support the agriculture sector through research to be able to wean from the conservative

Funding:

Start / End:

01/03/2021 - 28/02/2025

Budget:

EUR 175.000