Project Objectives:

The concept of the Water-Energy-Food-Ecosystem (WEFE) Nexus has emerged as a potential solution, recognizing the interdependencies between these systems and the vital role of ecosystems in sustaining them. The WEFE Nexus aims to promote integrated resource management, enhance resource efficiency, and foster sustainable development. Our proposed training program on the WEFE Nexus is a transformative educational initiative designed for youth aged 18-22. It aims to bridge the knowledge gap in sustainable development and the
