

CIHEAM
BARI

Italian local Food Atlases as basis to build a national observatory on local food policies: Watching, Organizing, Researching and sharing Knowledge through a digital participatory

ONFOODATLAS

Italy

Project Objectives:

The objective of OnFoodAtlas is to strengthen the capacity to produce and share contextual knowledge on food systems in order to support actors at the local level to play an active role in food governance and food policy building perspective to orient the food system towards enhanced sustainability, intervening at different stages, from the promotion of healthier and more sustainable diets, to the reduction of waste, to increased food accessibility and to foster social inclusion, particularly of vulnerable groups.

Funding:

European Union

Start / End:

15/11/2024 - 15/09/2025

Budget:

EUR 206.438